

RELOCATION GUIDE

-WILMINGTON-

Looking to move to North Carolina? Look no further than Wilmington, North Carolina. Wilmington is a coastal city with a small town feel in southeastern North Carolina. The population is just over 100,000, but there are plenty of places to go from the historic downtown, the beautiful beaches, to the stunningly peaceful residential neighborhoods.

Wilmington has great medical, pharmaceutical, electrical, and computer information systems industries. Wilmington is also home to EUE/Screen Gems Studio and is sometimes referred to as "Wilmywood". Shows and films such as Iron Man 3, Sleepy Hollow, One Tree Hill, and Under the Dome have been filmed in Wilmington.

The historic downtown area features an abundance of local businesses and restaurants and a quaint boardwalk and path known as the "Riverwalk" stretching down the Cape Fear River. The north end of Riverfront Downtown is also undergoing a $50 million development that will include condominiums and a new hotel and restaurants!

We would love to be a part of your relocation experience and help you make Wilmington your home.
